

Project Title: Table Talks

Hosted By: bulthaup Nederland

Project Introduction:

The setting is simple; a table and a couple of seats. This is all about people and passion and the ability to generate new ideas.

The Table Talks will be comfortable and in depth. A small, intimate audience will have the opportunity to listen in and participate in the conversation.

About Organisation:

bulthaup kitchens and living spaces are places where people come together to connect, relax and feel at home. To create such places, people, and their needs and customs, must be at the heart of all our considerations. We continually investigate this question as we manufacture our products with a passion for detail and a love of authentic materials, to create kitchen and living space systems that enrich lives now and tomorrow.
