

Project Title: Biobasecamp

Hosted By: Studio Marco Vermeulen

Project Introduction:

Biobasecamp is a pavilion and architectural expression of how "building with trees" can contribute to the reduction of CO2 and the reduction of nitrogen by replacing conventional building materials such as concrete with biobased materials.

About Organisation:

Studio Marco Vermeulen is a design agency for architecture, urban design, landscape and design research. This agency has designed the Biesbosch Museum and won various national and international prizes (including the Architizer Award and the Dutch Design Award). Studio Marco Vermeulen has developed visions for Greentech Park One in Boxtel, Work Landscape Ekkersrijt, Brabantstad 2040 and is the founder of The Genius Landscape (Brainport).
