

Project Title: Bio[^]mi - ‘Share nature’s vibe’ - biomimicry

Hosted By: Bio[^]mi

Project Introduction:

Bio[^]mi + partners aim to contribute to the idea of sustainability by inspiring, creating awareness, sharing and connecting knowledge through biomimicry and developments in biology, Bio Nano technology, Material- , Agro & Food- and Data Science, High Tech, Services and Processes and more.

About Organisation:

Bio[^]mi has been a collaboration of 'material fetishists' and architects Nadia Jellouli-Guachati (MSc. XS2N architect.office) and Lydia Fraaije (MSc. FRAAi Architecten), forged out of love for materials and nature and born out of the open call of Culture Eindhoven 'Materials for the future'.

Born out of the open call of Culture Eindhoven 'Materials for the future', Bio[^]mi builds and expands on Biomimicry3D, a collaboration of biomimicry, bionano technology and data science specialists.
