

Project Title: Ripples collection X Carpet Creations

Hosted By: Joca van der Horst

Project Introduction:

In collaboration with the label Carpet Creations, digital designer Joca van der Horst explored a new medium for a design that was born digital. Ripples is a collection of rugs featuring different versions of an ever changing digital pattern inspired by ocean waves and trigonometry.

About Organisation:

Joca van der Horst is a Dutch / Brazilian designer interested in how interactive products and systems can connect disciplines and empower people.

His work ranges from air purifying paintings to apps, but this year he just felt like designing a rug.
