

Project Title: Equilibrium

Hosted By: Ivan Kunjasic

Project Introduction:

If you could trap a moment of a painful sorrow or a deep joy, in what form would you like to keep it? Equilibrium is a biological wearable for emotional wellbeing, exploring how designing with biology can allow new sets of affordances and ways of expressing and interacting with the artifacts.

About Organisation:

Ivan is a designer and researcher, recently graduated MFA in IxD at Umeå Institute of Design. Prior to that, he spent a year at IDEO as Interaction Design Intern.

Genuinely interested in biotechnology, biodesign and benevolent business models. At the core, he's a mere human, and he finds beauty in that.
