Hosted By: Atelier Mats

Project Introduction:

It is time to come together and design can help us do that.

Atelier Mats will present new projects of the past year, transforming their studio into an experimental playground for ourselves and all the people we collaborate with.

About Organisation:

Atelier Mats, of designers Mats Horbach and Anne Ligtenberg, is a design studio focusing on collaborative and participating projects. The designers work on self initiated projects as well as for organizations and companies in which they bring people together. With a bold graphic design language Atelier Mats is an experimental playground for ourselves and all the people we collaborate with.
