

Project Title: A moment of quietude

Hosted By: Studio Hedwich Hooghiemstra & Studio Aline Gerards

Project Introduction:

A moment of quietude looks at the value of places for mourning in care homes. We look into what spaces for grief could offer the residents of care homes when we approach grief from a broader perspective.

About Organisation:

Hedwich hooghiemstra is concerned with the impact of the built environment on the user. The products and spaces she develops create amazement and generate a specific state of mind on a subconscious level. Her work adds social value to a world in search of serenity.

Aline Gerards is a social designer and researcher whose work revolves around visually translating and communicating emotion in order to connect with others.
