

Project Title: Cheap Characters

Hosted By: Annemijn Adriaensen

Project Introduction:

'Cheap Characters' is a collection that consists of five interior objects as a reaction to our present-day society, which is furnished with quick and fleeting things. Due to mass production we live in a society in where there is an enormous amount of uniform and similar products that can easily be

About Organisation:

Hi,

My name is Annemijn Adriaensen and I am a product designer and material researcher. The starting point for my designs are the every day stuff that I collect in stores like the secondhand shop, construction market and discounter stores. During my design process, I am going on an adventures with my collection of everyday materials that I have found in the stores.
