

Project Title: Cabinet of Collaborations - Klokgebouw Satellite

Hosted By: Dutch Design Foundation

Project Introduction:

An interdisciplinary group-exhibition showcasing the processes and results from engaging collaborations between designers and industry. This relevant satellite object redirects you to the main expo @Fuutlaan Hall (Area Station)

About Organisation:

After the corona crisis, can we still walk the same path we have been walking for the past decades? Shouldn't we break with the blind focus on economic growth? And shouldn't there be a greater emphasis on well-being and happiness? In the search for a better balance, designers have a pioneering role.

With the overarching theme The Greater Number, Dutch Design Week 2021 addresses, stimulates and presents this search, the search for better.
