

Project Title: Narcissus

Hosted By: Studio Roland Blok

Project Introduction:

Narcissus consists out of eight movable hexagon mirrors. It is waiting for you to come by. When you come close the mirrors move one by one to look at you. And they will keep tracking you. You cannot escape easily. For some it is engaging energy while others feel uncomfortable in this focus.

About Organisation:

I'm a maker artist. I love to make contraptions by combining physics, mathematics, electronics, software and other current technologies. Where possible do this together.

And then share to make one wonder and be surprised.

I'm always looking for new opportunities to do something interesting and special. If you are looking for that, don't hesitate to contact me.
