

Project Title: The Living Bin

Hosted By: Studio Hendrikx

Project Introduction:

What if our everyday products are alive? Imagine breathable houses, living coffins and self-healing T-shirts. Studio Hendrikx strives to restore the parasitic relationship between humanity and its environment by expanding the horizon of human imagination by exploring living materials.

About Organisation:

Studio Hendrikx is a design studio led by Inventor, Architect & Biodesigner Bob Hendrikx. The team consists of designers, engineers and scientists who focus solely on collaborating with living organisms, hereby striving for a new fundamental relationship with the natural world.
