

Project Title: Perimeters

Hosted By: Luke Vermeulen

Project Introduction:

Football commentary adds fuel to the disastrous polarisation that football has. While the spectator focusses on the game's visual assets, the whispers of its hegemonic discourse will unconsciously affect the viewer's perception. The game is riddled with injustice through noticed and unnoticed racism

About Organisation:

Inspired by the pop-culture, ancient traditions, football and philosophy, fascinated by human behaviour, animals, colour, movement and compositions. I research, conceptualise & visualise for both cultural and commercial fields.

Whether in the digital realm or on a three-dimensional scale, I combine different disciplines and mediums to build engaging experiences, and make the unseen visible.
