

Project Title: Plastic Crush - Tropenmuseum X Young Talents

Hosted By: Tropenmuseum

Project Introduction:

Can historic objects provide answers in our present quest for sustainability? The Tropenmuseum in Amsterdam invited four young designers to respond to a collection piece of their choice. Their findings are on display in the exhibition Plastic Crush and during DDW.

About Organisation:

The Tropenmuseum in Amsterdam is a museum about people. The museum wants to inspire global citizenship. And thus contribute to a more equal and just society. The museum does this through its collection, which inspires an open view of the world. At the Tropenmuseum you can see that, apart from the differences, we are all the same: human beings.
