

Project Title: Welcome to the New Stone Age

Hosted By: StoneCycling

Project Introduction:

StoneCycling presents new building materials that have a positive impact on construction and architecture. We'll introduce you in the world of waste, raw materials and carbon emission. We will show you that a fresh approach leads to surprising and impactful new building products.

About Organisation:

StoneCycling was founded in 2013 with the aim of developing new sustainable building materials that provide an answer to the sustainability challenges in construction and architecture.
